Dedicated

to

Miss Estella Gardner Hesley

who has cheerfully given her very best in helping us make our school an Alma Mater to be proud of

Ward-Belmont Ode

Dedicated to Dr. Blanton.

Ward-Belmont, Ward-Belmont,
The bright skies above you
Are reflecting thy colors so true—
Gold from the rays, the rays of the sunbeams,
The arches of Heaven, of Heaven the blue.

CHORUS:

Nine rahs for the gold and the blue,
Nine rahs for the gold and the blue—
Rah, rah, rah,
Rah, rah, rah,
Rah, rah, rah,
For the gold and the blue.

Thy praises, thy praises,
Be sung from the hilltops
And echo from shore unto shore,
Oh, Ward-Belmont our dear Alma Mater,
The gold and the blue evermore, evermore.

LOYALTY AND SCHOOL SPIRIT

It is sometimes hard to realize that school days are the best days of our lives, yet how often do we all look back and wish for those old days. Yet how much pleasanter are those memories if we can feel that we did our share. Ward-Belmont doesn't lack school spirit, but those "spirits" are few and far between. Girls, wake up! Don't let everybody else supply the enthusiasm, while you sit by and watch. Don't be a drone in the hive. Be loyal to your Alma Mater! It is yours to mould. So do your share!

MARY PIERCE

Have you ever heard of Texas and the name of Mary Pierce?
Well she's full of Texas spirit and school spirit something fierce;
She's the pride of dear Ward-Belmont and a leader in the school;
She's beloved by all the students and she never breaks a rule.

KATRINA OVERALL

Here I'm in a quandary, I've too much to say,
It's hard to tell Katrina's good points this way;
But I'm safe for a time, if I do sort of slight,
As an Editress she's too busy to fight.

MARY TYSOR

Tysor is her family name, Mary Dahl the rest,
We hope that if she changes these, he will not be a pest;
A Latin student sure is she and when she's gotten that
For Gallatin she packs her bag and dons her coat and hat.

PAULINE EWELL

With a voice that takes sunshine wherever she sings,
A kind disposition that happiness brings,
And a cheerful intention to do with her might
Every small deed which makes for the right.

LUCILE SPENCE

And now for Lucile—I'll soon stop in despair—
It's time to be writing a book, I declare;
But I'll sum it up this way—you'll have to agree
She's clever and witty, just as dear as can be.

HAZELLE ANDERSON

Hazel's a Senior who has very few flaws,
As will agree the men who make the State laws;
With manners that are never in the least alarming,
She's gracious, she's bright, and altogether charming.

MARJORIE CAMPBELL

Chemistry, did I hear you say?
Marjorie doesn't think it's play.
We've often heard of a crush or two
On faculty members, too. Have you?

VIRGINIA COLE

Virginia, the girl with black hair,
Who is both charming and most fair;
"Precious" she is known by all,
Has many friends since last fall.

MARION CONLEY

Marion Conley comes here from Texas,
 She believes in the rule "Let nothing vex us."
 She does her best, and if that isn't right,
 She tries to do better: "Don't give up the fight."

MARY DENMARK

Of all the nice girls, all the sweetest and best,
 You'd not have them all 'til Mary you'd guessed
 Chuck full of nonsense—brim full of fun—
 If you want a good time, Mary Denmark's the one.

MARY ELLEN DICKERSON

In English D she doth converse,
 In student life she's not perverse;
 Mary's quiet and very small,
 But I can tell you, that's not all!

ELIZABETH DRAKE

Elizabeth Drake, with her almond shaped eyes,
As a tight-rope walker someone describes;
She's clever, of course, for all Seniors are that,
And whenever you see them you take off your hat.

CLARA HARVEY

A truer friend than Clara Harvey here
Is hard to find at any time, my dear,
And when it comes to classes she's not dumb,
But rather makes the other students glum.

GRACE LANDRITH

Grace, Grace, the name that charms the ears
And must dispel all human fears;
Grace Landrith, loving and sincere,
By every Senior heart held dear.

GRACE LILLY

A former's life for you, my dear.
The country's the place for Grace, I fear;
She's happy and gay whatever you say,
In class she's a great and shining ray.

BERNICE MCCLAIN

Attractive in form and manner, too.
A friend ever faithful, ever true;
A brilliant student in every class,
A really, truly "Expression" lass.

ELLA MCKENNEY

Sweet Ella McKenney one day in September
Signed up for Psychology, perhaps you remember;
But there's nothing wrong with a girl who does that,
For when with Dr. T. you must have things down pat.

ETHEL PAYNE

Ethel Payne there's nothing to say,
Of one who is loved as is she;
She's just sweet Ethel day by day,
And all that a Senior should be.

RUTH PITTS

This prominent girl in the Senior Class,
This dear old girl we never could pass;
With a business head and a capable mind,
She's a rare combination I'm sure you will find.

SALLIE MAUDE RAY

Sallie Maude Ray is pretty and bright,
In all her classes a star;
But "Bible" is her special delight—
She's really far above par.

LEONA ROBERTS

Have you heard of that girl in the Senior Class,
 Leona, a demure and loveable lass?
 Who strictly maintains all the good Senior traits
 And silently waits for the voice of the Fates.

LAUREAME ROYER

Here's a girl who has talent—she writes very well—
 I'd like to have time on her genius to dwell;
 She's surely good-natured, that we all know,
 Always a grin, never thinking of woe.

CORINNE SMITH

A comedienne, too, we have in our number;
 She with many a tale our minds doth encumber.
 She makes a good time—she's entertaining, you know—
 When "Crink" is around nothing ever is slow.

ELEANOR STEENBURG

Eleanor, indeed, we must not forget;
A Senior of note who has ne'er failed us yet;
As calm, yet as busy as ever you see,
Eleanor sure is the girl for me.

ANITA WILLIAMS

Anita Williams is faithful and true.
She's an all around girl as ever you knew;
When there is a task some Senior should do
Anita is called on and carries it through.

AGNES WITHERINGTON

Agnes, the girl with the voice so fine,
And with it all she has a great mind;
To be famous is her great ambition,
And some day she'll go down in tradition.

GLADYS WOLFE

With two dips she is not spoiled,
And says "For them I have toiled;"
In Expression she's bright,
So we confess she is all right.

OPAL WOODLEY

With the name of Opal Woodley sound the name of Castle Feights,
And they say that when she's sleeping—well,
she dreams of it at nights,
But there's nothing wrong with Opal and in fact she suits us fine,
For whenever things are doing, Opal's always right in line.

IONE ZIGLER

Ione Zigler surely can sing,
But that is not all to this little dame;
She's pretty in fall, in winter, and spring,
And wondrous is the knowledge hid in her brain.

Hair, eyes and skin perfect, Evelyn is a type all her own. With an air of poise and stateliness and a proud toss to her regal head (she won't let me say she's a snob). She has done wonders with Expression and Miss Townsend (in more ways than one) and we fully expect to see her a future tragedy (?) queen.

Clarendon, Texas
Diploma in Voice

Vice-President Special Diploma Senior Class, '15; Vice-President Texas Club, '13-'14; Texas Club, '15; Choral Class, '13, '14-'15; Self Government Association, '13, '14.

Gypsy is another one of those girls whom the "Lone Star" State so proudly claims. If you will look back on the last commencement program or two you will see that even before she took her diploma, the other Senior Classes thought Gypsy's wonderful voice necessary to their graduation exercises. For the past year she has filled the place of "Post Mistress," and, considering her capability, combined with her voice, we have no fears but what she will make her mark in the world.

GLADYS WOLFE, Α K Ψ, Σ Φ Θ
Dallas, Texas
Diploma in Expression

Y. W. C. A., '13-'14, '14-'15; Panther Athletic Club; Secretary-Treasurer Special Diploma Senior Class; Secretary Pan-Hellenic; Texas Club, '13-'14; Secretary-Treasurer Texas Club, '14-'15; Self Government Association, '13-'14; French Club, '13-'14.

A quiet little Texas blonde. To know her is to like her; she is bright, loving and witty. Of diplomas she is getting her share. We regret very much that we will not have her with us next year to help cheer us along, but we suppose that Texas will claim her.

JEANETTE SLOAN
Nashville, Tennessee
Diploma in Expression
Sergeant-at-Arms Special Diploma, Senior Class, '15; Nashville Club, '13, '14-'15; Business Manager "Milestones," '14; Secretary Senior Middle Class, '14.

School wouldn't seem natural without Jeanette's cheerful grin and still more cheerful "top o' the morning." For long years now she has successfully evaded the clutches of the hall-teacher—whenever and wherever the lady may have been. Yes, this is one of Jeanette's vaulting ambitions. We think, in fact we are almost sure, that another one of her ambitions is to be a second Sarah Bernhart, or perhaps a Billie Burke, she hasn't decided which yet. At any rate, we hope our old classmate will think to send us box seats, or at least, tickets to the "Peanut Roost" when she makes her triumphal appearance.

JANE DOUGLAS CRAWFORD, A
Nashville, Tennessee
Diploma in Expression
Expression Editor "Hyphen" (1st Semester).

Jane came to us as a heritage from Belmont, and now she leaves us a Ward-Belmont girl. When one thinks of her, the thought somehow connects itself with that of the Expression Studio, for that is Jane's second home. No one will even be surprised to hear some day that she has risen to heights of fame. Indeed, we all expect it of her, and of course we won't be disappointed, for Jane Douglas has never failed in anything yet.

MARION LEFTWICH, Δ T Σ, Α Γ Σ
Nashville, Tennessee
Diploma in Expression
Alpha, Gamma, Sigma, '14; Secretary Junior Class, '14.

Marion's hair is not the only thing which makes her a "shining light," for she is one of the chief constellations in the Expression Class. Wherever we have the excitement of a play, we always look for our golden-haired Marion as leading lady. But what are we going to do when she does leave us? At any rate, here's hoping she'll stay with us until she finds her leading man.

LUCILE SPENCE
Chattanooga, Tenn.

Diploma in Expression

Y. W. C. A., '13-'14, '14-'15; French Club, '13-'14; Tennis Club, '13-'14; Swimming Club, '13-'14; President Tennessee Club, '14-'15; Self Government Association, '13-'14; Sergeant-at-Arms of Senior Class; Special Diploma in Expression; Assistant Business Manager "Milestones," '14-'15; Corresponding Secretary of Athletic Association; Recording Secretary of Athletic Association (Second Semester).

And Lucile, whom Sir Alfred immortalized—or did she immortalize Sir Alfred? With her dusk-dark hair and vivacious black eyes, she helps keep up old Tennessee's reputation for beautiful women.

EILEEN SYPE
Rawls, Arkansas

Diploma in Expression

Tennis Club; Illinois Club.

Here is one of that ever-surprising group of Expression graduates, who will never be forgotten. Eileen herself will never be forgotten by those who know her, because of her sweetness and grace of character. She is a hard worker, and is a Senior worthy of the name, for she has been a leading spirit in all of her class activities with her loyal enthusiasm.

FLORENCE PATTERSON
Riverside, California

Diploma in Pipe Organ

Our California girl! Her disposition is like that climate—calm and sweet and sunny. But her music has the temperament of the old Spanish traditions, and the coloring of the rose and purple sunsets. Florence is just a girl—true and sweet and lovable.

MARY SMITH
Nashville, Tenn.

Diploma in Pipe Organ

We do not get to see very much of Mary, but we love her sweetness and her slim gracefulness. Her music is the kind that "hath the charm to soothe the savage breast" and even we Ward-Belmont girls will stop our ragtime to listen to her.

ELSA ECKHARDT
Hamilton, Ohio

Diploma in Music

Music! It is a charming sound, and Elsa's specialty. Both night and day she practices diligently, and in her spare time she studies psychology. When called upon in the last mentioned class she recites vigorously until either from lack of breath or from the fact that Mr. Angell himself said nothing more on the subject, she is forced to desist. Bright? Why, of course! Any one has to be bright to keep up with Greig, Brack, and those other musical lights.

JOSEPHINE FRY
Nashville, Tenn.

Diploma in Music

Josephine is an enthusiastic member of the Senior Class, and her presence and support may always be counted on whenever there is need. She is loyal in every sense of the word. Josephine is a very gifted young lady in the musical line, and an opportunity should never be neglected to listen to her exquisite playing.

ALBERTA COOPER
Nashville, Tenn.

Diploma in Home Economics

A cook in our midst did we say? Yes indeed, Alberta will certainly qualify for that title. And not only is she so skilled in culinary lines, but she doesn't forget that she's a true Ward-Belmont girl, and also a Belmont girl, for she clings to that Alumnae. She's loyal to all she loves.

MAY HICKMAN
Hartsville, Tenn.

Diploma in Music

Hark! Mary is playing! The listener stands aghast at the melodious strains which pour forth from her practice room. It has been said that real music can only be produced by one who has felt real love. May this one be so in this case? We wonder, you wonder and perhaps some place one other person is wondering.

JESSICA JORDAN
Hillsboro, Texas

Diploma in Home Economics

Our "Jap," with her black hair and eyes, her jolly disposition, and her many athletic accomplishments, is a general favorite. Jessica wins basketball games for the Regulars, breaks our swimming records and makes everybody love her. And cook! My, the lucky man who wins fair Jessica's fickle heart will never want for a well-laden table.

SUSIE MAE BEASLEY

Nashville, Tenn.

Diploma in Music

Susie Mae is almost an unknown quantity to her classmates, for, being a Nashville girl, she seldom appears at Ward-Belmont except for her work. But that work is enough to admit her any place. Susie Mae is indeed fortunate to have been blessed with such talent, and Ward-Belmont is fortunate to receive even a small portion of this young lady's valuable time.

ELLEN AMBROSE

Nashville, Tenn.

Diploma in Home Economics

Shy and quiet, but with the brightest of smiles is Ellen. We don't see her very often for she has a most extraordinary and unusual fondness (?) for the library. Whoever he is, his pantry will be well-stocked, or rather his life will be as happy as good things to eat and the gentlest of companions can make it.

JOYCE GREGORY

Nashville, Tenn.

Diploma in Music

Joyce is another of our Senior Class who claims Nashville as her native heath. We seldom see her, for she is always a very busy young lady, with her roll of music. But tho' we've seen so little of her, we are proud to have had her name on our class list, and when that "some day" of the future comes, we will all be prouder still.

MATTIE LEE REIB
EILEEN SYPE

EILEEN SYPE

Eileen Sype, the President of the class, was chosen by lot and the lates seemed to be smiling when they decreed such a talented girl for the office. She is proud to have formerly lived in Chicago and her heart is still in "U. High." Eileen is not content with one diploma, but is also receiving another in Expression. Like Judy, the heroine of "Daddy Long Legs," which she dramatized, Eileen intends to keep all her books after she graduates so that she may have her knowledge stored on one shelf, which will be much easier than trying to keep it all in her head.

MARTHA LINDSEY

President of College Preparatory Club, '13-'14; Treasurer of Nashville Club, '13-'14; Assistant Business Manager of Annual, '13-'14; Vice-President of Nashville Club, '14-'15; Literary Editor of "Milestones," '14-'15; Secretary and Treasurer of First Year College Certificate Class.

This quiet little Literary Editor of the Annual has a lot more to her than you might imagine upon first sight. But it doesn't take you very long to find out about her for she simply overflows with capability. We won't tell you she's "proper," for she would never forgive us and then, too, she sometimes loses her air of serenity when she's trying to finish a History of Art or "Math." notebook.

CORNELIA KEEBLE

Cornelia is the busiest person in Ward-Belmont, at least she thinks she is, although all the rest of us think the same thing of ourselves. It must be confessed that she enters the race of class competition with determination, and always comes out a brilliant winner in the end. In fact, she belongs in the "A" class. Her fondness for "Hamlet" is sometimes wondered at, but we think that inclination is accounted for since she spends a great deal of time writing letters to the heroine. We will all miss our talkative friend when she goes away next year, but we can confidently count on her as our star representative at Wellesley.

ELIZABETH LEITZBACH

Editor-in-Chief of Hyphen, etc.

Ah! who have we here? The Editor-in-Chief of the Hyphen, who in wit and good, common sense never had an equal. One might think she was a veritable refrigerator from her nick-name, "Icebox," but on acquaintance with this Illinois girl one finds this a wrong supposition. Her one detestation is excess laundry, and her favorite (?) sport swimming. However she has not graced the pool but once this year. She is thinking of going to a Co-ed next year, we wonder why—?

MARTHA KILLEBREW

School wouldn't seem natural without Martha, for she is always "right here," especially if there is any fun going on. She was one of the stalwart champions of the Athenians, but on account of having become the "wounded hero"-ine at the early part of the season, it was very necessary for her to retire from the public eye before she accumulated all of the glory. Our one consolation is that we know she is coming back next year, for, on account of her great fondness (?) for French, she cannot resist the temptation of pursuing her talents in this line.

MATTIE LEE REIB

Alpha Kappa Psi; Y. W. C. A.; Texas Club.

"A gracious manner and a winning smile."

Mattie Lee hails from Texas. Her sunny smile cheers all who meet her. Practicing is her hobby, but she is never quite happy unless her roommate is near. Instead of Mattie Lee continuing to study her lesson, she has decided to "lesson" her studies. Why is she going to Cornell for Commencement? Of course, her brother graduates. Mattie Lee, who has grown thin on account of the experiences of four years in Ward-Belmont, has often threatened to write a theme for English A on the "Terrors and Trials of Boarding School in the City of Nashville," but has changed her dramatic subject for that of "A Criticism on Jane Austin."

The Bells

[With all due courtesy to Poe.]

Hear John ring that hateful bell—
 Ris'ng, bell!
What a day of drudgery it's tolling doth foretell;
How it soars, soars, soars,
With its loud, uproarious roars,
Breaking our sonorous snores,
Almost at the break of dawn,
Till our last fond dreams are gone;
Keeping time, time, time,
In a sort of rhythmic rhyme
With that clamorous insistence,
That so unwelcomely now swells
From the bells, bells, bells, bells, bells, bells,
From the jangling and the wrangling of the bells.

At 7 they ring a bell—
 Breakfast bell!
What a world of hurrying its ringing doth foretell;
Grabbing middies, hose, and skirts,
Hairpins, ties, and even shirts,
As we race down stairs and hall;
It's the call
So unexpectedly it wells
From the bells, bells, bells, bells, bells, bells, bells,
To the hurry and the scurry of the bells.

Hear that glad releasing bell—
 Luncheon bell!
What a qualm to appetite its pealing doth foretell;
Perhaps it's near—fresh fish—
Or last Sunday's untouched dish,
Or Pat's home-grown potato
With a slice of green tomato;
While from out the pantry cells,
What a crop of onion smells!—
To the ringing and the swinging of the bells,
Of the bells, bells, bells, bells, bells, bells, bells,
To the ringing and the swinging of the bells.

After dinner there's a bell—
 Study bell!
What a world of work and woe its chiming doth foretell.
Study hall for all the bad,
And—"no visiting"—truly sad,
What's the use of negligees or kimonas
If the owners
Cannot slip across the hall and make fudge,
Without the call,
"Study hour," from the teachers?
Oh, those bells, bells, bells, bells, bells, bells,
The odious observance of those bells.

Day and night we hear those bells—
 Fire bells!
The "voice of all the faculty," so Dr. Blanton tells.
Chapel, light bell, vespers, lunch,
And we always have a hunch
That at 5:30 it will ring.
Practice, classes—everything—
That we do from fall to spring
Is run to bells, bells, bells, bells, bells, bells, bells,
To the tin-tin-nabulation of the bells.

Addenda

And the people, ah, the people,
That put that bell up in the steeple
 All alone.
Who keep tolling, tolling, tolling,
In that constant monotone,
Feel a glory in so rolling
On the student heart a stone,
They are neither man nor woman,
They are neither brute nor human:
 They are———teachers.

Ward-Belmont Varsity Song

[Words and Music by Hermosa Brown]

Original Tune

Chorus.

1.

There's a school in Tennessee
Where all of us just love to be,
Every one should want to see
The sports at W.-B.
We've tennis in the spring and fall,
In winter we play basketball;
We stand together, one and all,
And loyalty's our call.

2.

O, Ward-Belmont,
O, Ward-Belmont,
That's the place where we Stand together, loyal ever,
Dear old school to thee.
There are girls who live in Dixie,
Look away, away;
From East and West and Yankee
land,
We're the Ward-Belmont girls.

We have pride in everything,
And that is why we like to sing
About our athletes big and strong,
To cheer them with our song.
We have many who can swim
And others are good in gym;
You should see our girls in track—
Is there anything we lack?

IT'S A LONG WAY TO WARD-BELMONT

[Tune of "Tipperary"]

It's a long way to Ward-Belmont,
It's a long way to come;
It's a long way to Ward-Belmont,
Far away from the folks at home;
Good-bye scenes of childhood,
Farewell home, so dear
It's a long, long way to Ward-Belmont,
But my heart's right here.

SENIOR SONG

[To the tune of "Can't You See the Love Light Shining?"]
Can't you see the knowledge shining in our eyes so true?
Doesn't it seem to softly whisper that our school days are thru?
But we're linked to dear Ward-Belmont with a love untold you know,
There's a tie that binds our '15 class where'er we go.

Recipe For An Annual

Take a staffful of originality.

Same amount of brains.

About eighteen qts. of real, live pep.

Fully a ton of school spirit.

A fresh, young joke to every page.

Equal amount of Harrison Fisher-like tendencies and Shakespearian characteristics.

Season to taste with temper.

Garnish liberally with the long green and serve for $3.50 a plate.

N. B.—Don't worry about the roasting—the rest of the school will do that.

THE FORTUNES OF THE SOPHOMORE CLASS, AS TOLD BY GYPSY MADGE

LIZZIE D. ALEXANDER—Will marry a rich man, live in Europe and raise chickens.

VIRGINIA ARMISTEAD—Will marry three times—for the first time at the age of 29—go to Germany on her honeymoon.

EMMA MORROW ATCHISON—Will marry a preacher when she is 29 and live in Africa.

OENITA BAKER—Will not marry; will inherit $300,000 and go on the stage.

KATHERINE BARNETT—Will marry a pawnbroker, live in a bungalow and be 23 when she marries.

GLADYS BELL—Will have six chances to marry, but will refuse all of them, will have a home for stray cats.

BESSIE BLAKE—When she is 60 will marry a dancing master, and will live in Europe.

ELLENE BRACKEN—After she has married a ringmaster, will join a circus and be chief cook.

DOROTHY BRANDON—Husband will be a sport—will live in Cornersville, Tenn., and sing in church choir.

DOROTHY BROBST—Her husband will be four feet short, will live in China, and will send her children to Ward-Belmont.

VIRGINIA CARMICHAEL—Will teach dancing in New York; will have many suitors, but will not marry till she is 39.

LETITIA CARTER—Will marry a strange fellow she saw in the parlor one night, and later they will go as missionaries to China.

ELIZABETH CLEMENT—Will be burned alive the first night of her marriage to a red headed man. Leave her millions to Ward-Belmont.

JOSEPHINE COLE—Will sell Wilson heaters, and be married three times.

MYRTLE CONYERS—After ten years of struggling for Women's Rights, will marry a man named William.

MARGARET COOPER—At the happy young age of 63 will marry a brick mason and live in a castle in Spain.

ELIZABETH COPE—When she is 23 she will teach swimming in Vanderbilt, and marry a blue eyed professor.

RUTH ECKLES—Hard luck will be in her path, but will finally marry the man she wants—an organ grinder.

DOROTHY FAIN—Will write poems for the Cosmopolitan, and marry an editor of 75 years.

ADDIE BELLE GARY—Will go insane over a moving picture actor and spend the rest of her life turning the crank.

EMALINE GREENE—Mr. Black will finally win her hand, although Mr. Brown and Mr. White will play an important part in her program.

CHARLOTTE HARRISON—Her husband will be a high diver, they will live in San Francisco and have a fish stand.

ISABEL HARRISON—Will marry a toe and clog dancer, have a large house, and a whole lot of little trees in her yard.

LUCY HERNDON—At the old age of 22 will take the agency for the Ford and marry a chauffeur.

RHEA HOLLAND—Will make $500 a month writing for "Life," but will give up her brilliant career and marry a Mr. Smith.

MAUDE HOLBERT—Will marry an architect, live in Nashville and do slum work.

HELEN KILLEBREW—Will marry a rich Lord from England, live in Asia, and bet on races.

CHARLOTTE LAWNIN—Her efforts will be useless; she will not marry but will make a fortune manufacturing face paint.

MARION LEWIS—Will marry an auburn haired gentleman and live in Murfreesboro, Tenn., over Cohen's.

BERTINE McCrARY—Will spend ten years singing in a side show of Ringling Bros. Circus, and then will marry an Episcopal Rector.

EMILY MILLS—Will be a college widow, but will finally marry an old gray-haired professor.

FRANK MONTGOMERY—At the age of 37 will enter the holy bonds of matrimony; her husband will be a snake charmer and a Δ. K. E.

ANNE MORRIS—Will marry a football hero. Will be left a widow at the age of 67 and spend the rest of her life playing a pianola in a picture show.

RUTH MOSS—Her life will be spent in England fighting the Germans. She will marry an army officer.

PAULINE NATHAN—Will marry a man whose initials are T. L. We do not know whether it means Too Late, Trade Last, or True Love.

JEANETTE PATTON—Her husband will be a light weight boxer. He will die with a hen pecked heart.

WILMA RECK—Her husband will kill her mother-in-law. She will have a happy life, and live in Georgia.

LOUISE REGEN—After ten years spent in trying to get a Ward-Belmont diploma she will marry the president of the United States and give balls and receptions.

MARTHA REGEN—Will be a bare-back rider in a dog and pony show, and spend her happy old age in Texas.

VELMA RIEDEL—Will teach Chemistry and Botany at Ward-Belmont, and remind the girls of Miss Earle.

LUCILE ROBINSON—Will marry a fat man. She will sing in a church choir, and her husband will run a pool room.

ELLEN RODDY—Will marry a music professor and go to Vermont on her bridal tour.

BERNICE ROSENBERG—Her husband will be a horse thief, but will have money. They will live in a stone house on the Swanee River.

VERA SATTERFIELD—Will teach a country school and later marry the county constable.

MARY SMITH—Will give up her stage career at the age of 37 and marry a magician.

AILEEN STEWART—Her husband will be a patent medicine man. They will live on 5th Avenue and have ten automobiles.

MIRIAM STRAUSS—Will live in Alabama for about ten years with her husband—then will take a trip to Reno. Will be rich.

MARTHA VAUGHN—She disappears from her home and nothing is heard of her for ten years, then she is found teaching Bible in Ward-Belmont.

BOBBY WALKER—Will marry a rich man, live in an air castle—on love.

PEARL WEBB—Her husband will be blind. She will be twenty-four when she marries and will dress well.

ANNIE WEBER—Will live in Michigan, will marry a brunette and have a long honeymoon.

NINA LOYD WHEELER—Will marry a priest, raise geese, and take up tickets at a moving picture show.

LILLIAN BYRD WHITSELL—Will hold the important position of chaperone at W.-B. Will finally lose her job for being too strict.

LUELLA WHORLEY—Her husband will be deaf. She will be a grand opera singer and ride in a Lozier.

REBA LEE YEATMAN—Will be a loyal worker for Woman's Suffrage. Will marry a detective.

Our Song

As the Southern girls sing it:

"Wawhd-Belmaht,
Wawhd-Belmaht,
Th' bright skies erbuv yo'
Ah reflectin' yo' cullahs so true."

As our Northern girls give it:

"Warred-Belmarnt,
Warred-Belmarnt,
The brrrright skies above you
Arrrrr rrrreflecting thy colorrrs so trrrrue."

As Mademoiselle says it:

"Ward-Belmont,
Ward-Belmont,
Ze bright skies above vous
Sont reflecting thy coulaïres tre's true—n'est ce pas?"

As Herr Schmitz would have it:

"Vard-Belmont,
Vard-Belmont,
Das Himmel abuff you
Iss reflecting your colors so true."

According to Miss Hefley:

"Ward-Bilmont,
Ward-Bilmont,
The bright skies above you
Are reflecting thy colors so true."

What they all mean:

Ward-Belmont,
Ward-Belmont,
The bright skies above you
Are reflecting thy colors so true.

The Infirmary

Has someone asked you this question to-day—
What will the Infirmary do when we're away?
Sweet Mrs. Lester will grow lonely and sad,
But Lucy, we know, will surely be glad.

Then Monday comes—you have a test—
You decide you love the Infirmary best;
You climb the steps at a rapid pace,
But once at the top—what a tortured face.

Were you ever there on Sunday morn,
With dreadful pains but newly born?
Sweetie takes your name, you smile with glee,
And shyly think, Oh! lucky me!

In years to come, when we are old,
After summer's warm and winter's cold,
When we are—Oh! just miles away,
We'll wonder and wonder, "Who's there to-day?"

[From the Tennessean.]

Something new under the sun fell to the delighted lot of those who heard "Martha" at Ward-Belmont Friday evening. Operas and concerts galore have fallen to the lot of Nashville, but never before has she had an opera given in concert form—that is to say, the entire score given in every detail, but standing strictly on its own merit, unaided by any scenic effects, costumes or stage properties, which go so far to the accomplishment of results. This presentation had to go entirely on its own excellence, and suffice to say, that excellence was of so high an order that it completely charmed and delighted all its fortunate hearers.

The Ward-Belmont auditorium was filled to overflowing by an enthusiastic crowd and several hundred people were turned away because of lack of accommodations. It was probably the largest crowd that ever attended a musical event of this kind in Nashville.

Nashville is indebted to Browne Martin, in charge of the sciences of music at Ward-Belmont for this direction. The splendid results Mr. Martin achieved with this chorus of untrained voices marks him a conductor of skill and unusual merit. His was the ability that made possible that singing which will be long remembered here. He is a practical demonstration of the broader and deeper the knowledge the more can be given and shared.

Another delightful surprise awaited Nashville in the singing of Mrs. Helen Yates-Martin, whose first appearance it was. Mrs. Martin sang the long numbers of "Martha" with an artistry and finish that at once proclaims her the artist. Hers is an exquisite soprano voice, clear and rich, and capable of the most delicate shading. She is a pupil of Ellison Van Hoose, and in her splendid breath control, flexibility and enunciation, showed the thoroughness of her training and justified his belief in her skill.

Mrs. Martin's rendition of "The Last Rose of Summer" was the most exquisite number of the entire program and was a gem of beauty.

As always, Mrs. Robert Caldwell was most enthusiastically received. The rich, full tones of her lovely contralto voice won for her renewed praise and new friends.

In Edward Walker, the tenor, Nashville had a rare treat. Mr. Walker ranks high among the stars of Chicago, and his beautiful voice last evening more than justified the expectation concerning his ability.

Of course Charles C. Washburn was good, and of course he did excellent work. Nashville has come to the point where she expects nothing else from him but excellence and those expectations are never disappointed. He sang three heavy baritone roles last evening with all his accustomed finish and style.

Among the younger musicians none hold a warmer place in the affections of the public than Messrs. Henry Meeks and Currell Vance. Their work last night was exceptionally good. Misses Mildred Reid, Bessie Cook and Gypsy Sullivan acquitted themselves well and received much commendation.

But if the soloists were good the choral work was even better. Seldom has such ensemble work been heard. They responded to the slightest demand from their conductor and as a result some splendid work was accomplished. Especially were they good in the attack, finish of phrases and effective shading. The building of their crescendoes, bringing out fully the intention of the passage, was worthy of much older musicians. Only concentration and an absolute belief in their conductor could have produced such fine results.

No account of this performance would in any measure be complete without a word about the splendid support given the soloists and chorus throughout this evening by Mr. F. Arthur Henkel. His was the skill behind the throne, who responded to every demand, and who helped in every instance to make perfect a beautiful evening song.

The work of the Vanderbilt Glee Club throughout was splendid, the young men being in good voice and singing splendidly.

If We Told The Truth

x x x

Yes, our uniforms are really awfully good-looking—stylish, beautiful material, and all that. We really do look better in them than lots of our own clothes, but it's just so much fun to complain.

No, Mrs. Blanton, I really haven't any shopping to do in town today, and there's not a bit of use in my going, but you know there's so much "beaning" this afternoon and we always catch a car at Decker's corner, and—er, Jack sent me word he'd be there about 4 o'clock.

No, Mrs. Lester, I'm really not sick at all, but we have two tests to-day and I don't know a thing in the world about them.

Yes, we really have good meals out at the school—better than most of us are used to at home. We'd fuss anyway if they gave us chicken salad and club sandwiches twice a day.

Yes, Mrs. Blanton, he lives here in Nashville and could come out any other night. I know we shouldn't have callers Saturday night, but I just want the parlor to myself.

ASSOCIATED WITH THE PRESS

SOME HAIRCUT

For the first time this year, Ward-Belmont has been afflicted with a strange looking head, it being on the person, or rather, plainly speaking, we refer to the head of Mary Lewis. The job, it is said was undertaken by about six tonsorial experts, some of whom are known about the school, and the results showed it.

It is rumored that the instruments used were the lawn trimming shears, a mower, and a horse clipper, but from more reliable sources it was ascertained that the means consisted of one good, old-fashioned, well-tempered scissors. At any rate, the job was done well.

A NEW CHEF

Feeds us like we're almost humans.

Rejoice and be exceedingly glad!

At last Ward-Belmont girls can let their appetites out to their full limit. Some limit!

Chicken salad Monday, fruit salad Tuesday, ham and eggs for breakfast Wednesday and the heavens have not fallen yet, but we're expecting it any moment.

SPRING IS HERE!

And the next day it rained!

EXTRA—SPECIAL

Graft and Bribery Suspected

Overall, the candidate for the editor of "Milestones" was seen to give her place at the drinking fountain on a hot day last week to a freshman. The occurrence shows how a candidate will stoop to gain a vote.

Death Notice

On the 25th of May, the most honorable, illustrious class of 1915 will be no more. Few of its members are to be scattered among the various colleges.

Generosity Goes Unrewarded

Miss Hefley regrets her largesse to the extent of $13.60.

Receiving a parcel post package of drugs, cologne and various other "patents" and finding it too much for personal use, Miss Estelle Hefley opens her heart and her present to pupils, teachers and John. But alas! her purse must open also! A bill from a druggist—"parcel sent by mistake"—and Miss Hefley draws a lemon—and a check!

SPORTING SECTION

Amidst great cheering from a crowd numbering a million or less, the Regulars won from the Panthers the championship in basketball. Success was attributed to the fact that their ties were of such vivid hues that the Panthers were dazzled by their brilliancy.

Where's the center of population around here?

What'd'ye mean? Where's the population the densest?

What's that?

Oh, never mind, I guess it's the thickest here.

DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS

Ward-Belmont Found to be a Second Reno

The fite between the waist and skirt revealed before the public eye!

It is no longer a secret—everybody knows it. The President of the Tennessee Club brings disgrace to the ranks, though Miss Hefley attempted a compromise. However, the matter had proceeded too far. We regret very much this sad state of affairs, but let it serve future husbands as an example not to stint on pin money.

It is very common to see:

A watch spring.
A match box.
A plank walk.
A banana stand.
A cake walk.

Why, I even saw
A cat fish
And a horse fly.

CECIL LEWIS—"I don't believe in standing on trifles."

ELIZABETH SMITH—(looking at her feet), "So I perceive."

Violets are blue,
Roses are red,
So is the hair
On Anita's head.

Freshibus takibus examinitorium,

On fidelity third
There's more'n one bird,
They have a bad "rep."
But still have "pep."
With Mlle.
It's hard to tell
What is their grade
In deportment made.
Miss Cason's talks
Makes them walk
Right down the stair
All in a scare,
And woe to thee
From Mrs. B.

FIRE ALARM

One-two-three,
One-two-three,
Goes the bell,
Girls pell-mell;
Pull down the windows,
Leave on the light,
Now beat it down
To the very first flight.

Once upon a midnight dreary,
While we feasted weak and weary,
Came a tapping at my door—
'Twas a teacher—nothing more.

How can we quell the riot
When they tell us to be quiet?
At Vespers we don't see
With heaps of tongues for tea!

Noah, when he lit a candle, made the first ark light.

In the parlor there were three—
The girl, the lamp and he—
Two is company without a doubt,
And so the parlor lamp went out.

A teacher must be pretty cold to give a pupil zero.

Freshman—Grassy,
Sophomore—Sassy.
Juniors—Brassy,
Seniors—Classy.

The other day an ear of corn was run over by an auto and three kernels were killed!

MISS MILLS—"What is the meaning of the word transparent?"

LOUISE CRAIG—"Something you can see through."

MISS MILLS—"Right! Give me an example."

LOUISE—"A ladder."

If you can't laugh at the jokes of the age, laugh at the age of the jokes.

"Here, you, 'rastus, whar's dat can o' lard I tol' yo' to git?"

"Law me, maw, dat wus so greasy it done slipped my mind."

JEANNETTE PATTON—(in basket ball) "Come on girls, let's fight this game to the bitter end."

SARAH FARRAR—"Yes, but be careful who gets the bitter end."

I used to think I knew, I knew,
But now I must confess
The more I know I know I know,
I know I know the less.—Ex.

The girl stood on the railroad track,
The train at her did squeal;
The engineer got off the cab
And scraped her off the wheel.—Ex.

"If the devil should lose his tail, where would he go to get another?"

"Where they re-tail spirits."

"Why do girls grow more beautiful as they grow older?"
"Practice makes perfect."

FRANK MONTGOMERY—"Why is it dangerous to go to the woods in the spring?"

LUCILE HEATH—"Because the cowslips about, the twigs are shooting, the grass has blades, and the flowers have pistils."

BESS ALLEN—"What constitutes love?"

CORINNE SMITH—"A little sighing, a little crying, a little dying and a great deal of lying."

PORTER (to elderly lady)—"Your train is two hours late."

LADY (to Porter)—"My man, why do you say my train when you know it doesn't belong to me?"

PORTER—"Why does you say my man when you knows I belong to my old woman?"

LEONA ROBERTS (to Lena F.)—"Why do you eat so much, Lena?"

LENA F.—"Because my arithmetic book says 'one gal. equals four quarts.'"

Upon being asked if she wished to go to Heaven when she died, Adne Wood replied: "Well, if I go to Heaven and St. Peter says Miss Healey's there I won't go in because she'll say, 'Adne, take your roll call seat.'"

VIRGINIA COLE—To prove that a Freshman is an affliction—

Proof—

A Freshman is new,
New means not old,
Not old means not stale,
Not stale means fresh,
Fresh means smart,
Smart means pain,
Pain is an affliction—
therefore, a Freshman is an affliction.

Because he merely kr.

So, out of spite,

The following night

The naughty Mr. Kr. Sr.

FLUNK

Flunk, flunk, flunk,

In all thy classes, oh, girl—

But take the advice of a poet,

And recite tho' your head's in a whirl.

Oh, well for the students who ride,

Who cram by the midnight oil;

For the dear teacher lets her slide,

And gives her a pass for her toll.

Oh, well for the Freshie green,

That she soon will become a Soph.,

And well for the Senior bold

That she stands in well with the Prof.

Flunk, flunk, flunk,

In chemistry, physics and trig.,

And the tears well up in the depths of my heart

When I think how we all have to dig.

All things come to those who wait,

But when they do they're out of date.

"Why is it so hard to find where pins go?"

ELIZABETH COOLEGE—"Because they are always pointed in one direction and headed in another."

MISS LEWIS—"What animal is satisfied with the least nourishment?"

PUPIL—"A moth; it eats nothing but holes."

"Is there any prohibition of kissing at this school?"

MABEL BUNCH—"No, merely local option."

THE END

Starr Quality

THE STARR PIANO stands alone for its absolute correctness of construction and for the studied attention to every smallest detail. The tone is pure, clear and unrivaled; the touch is unsurpassed for flexibility and precision and the scales are scientifically correct, even and perfect.

The single honor accorded the Starr piano by the leading educational institutions was because of quality alone. It is not enough that a piano have a pure tone and perfectly regulated action, but these qualities must be in the superlative degree—they must be for all time.

Lebeck Bros.

The unmistakable charm and beauty in

Footwear Fashions

Find faultless interpretation here. Novelty styles, more fanciful and more varied than ever before, but still serviceable. And when you buy Lebeck footwear, you're assured of quality which makes for real service, and withal, prices here are no higher than you'd ordinarily pay—$3.50 to $7.00. More so this season than ever before, it is very necessary for

Silk Hosiery to Match

Not only the shade of footwear, but the costume as well. Every shade and color is here. New striped silk stockings in all of the pretty color combinations in vogue the present season. Pretty embroidered and checked hosiery, as well as every wanted plain shade for evening or street wear.

Young ladies who demand

The Newest Neckwear

Invariably come direct to this store because of the always-pretty and always-distinctive collection to be seen. Styles were never prettier than this season.
